About Aroma Studios

Aroma Studios is one of the most recognized production companies in the Middle East, based between Cairo, Dubai and Riyadh. The company produces original films and series — more than 50 successful, award-winning regional titles, and over 30 international awards for its post-production work — and provides full production services to international features, series and commercials shooting in Egypt, with post-production and VFX through A03 Studios. Recent work includes serving as the on-the-ground production partner and Middle East distributor of TNT's miniseries High Value Target, starring Joel Kinnaman. The studio has also delivered thousands of TV commercials since its founding.

A word from the founder

Tamer Mortada

Founder, Aroma Studios

“I built Aroma Studios on a simple conviction: Egypt is one of the greatest places on earth to make film and television — five thousand years of locations within thirty minutes of Cairo, and crews whose craft rivals any market I have worked in. When a producer lands in Egypt with us, they find a single accountable partner who treats their film as our own. That is the standard, on every shoot.”

Showcase

High Value Target — TNT miniseries

Starring Joel Kinnaman and Waleed Zuaiter, directed by Oscar-nominee Ziad Doueiri, produced by Alexander Rodnyansky and Leslie Greif. Aroma Studios served as the on-the-ground production partner: ~75 shooting days around Cairo, full military scale, major set builds including the White House, 1,000+ VFX shots by A03 Studios — and the exclusive MENA distribution deal with Watch It.
